

A Feminist Theory of Refusal

Bonnie Honig

9780674248496 | £23.95 | HB | 208 pp. | May 2021

Harvard University Press (John Wiley and Sons Ltd) | 14 photos

Bonnie Honig invigorates debate over the politics of refusal by insisting that withdrawal from unjust political systems be matched with collective action to change them. Historical and fictional characters from Muhammad Ali to the Bacchantes of ancient Greek tragedy teach us how to turn rejection into transformative efforts toward self-governance.

The Power of Creative Destruction: Economic Upheaval and the Wealth of Nations

Philippe Aghion, Celine Antonin and Simon Bunel

9780674971165 | £28.95 | HB | 400 pp. | April 2021

Harvard University Press (John Wiley and Sons Ltd) | 166 illus., 11 tables

The solution to inequality, environmental degradation, and other deficits of capitalism is better capitalism. The Power of Creative Destruction draws on cutting-edge research to argue that what we need today is not revolution but reform: pro-competitive policies that enable innovation while compensating for the disruption it causes.

The Economic Integration of Europe

Richard Pomfret

9780674244139 | £31.95 | HB | 272 pp. | May 2021

Harvard University Press (John Wiley and Sons Ltd) | 4 maps

Richard Pomfret documents European integration since WWII, showing that today's European Union is the product less of master planning than of responses to political and economic challenges. Nevertheless, the EU emerges as a world-historic achievement in cross-border cooperation, with a bright but challenging future.

The Return of Inequality: Social Change and the Weight of the Past

Mike Savage

9780674988071 | £28.95 | HB | 448 pp. | May 2021

Harvard University Press (John Wiley and Sons Ltd) | 39 illus., 12 tables

Sociologist Mike Savage shows how economic inequality aggravates cultural, social, and political conflicts, challenging the framework of liberal democracy. By fracturing social bonds, inequality turns back the clock, reviving conditions we have struggled for centuries to escape, including empire, dynastic elitism, and explosive ethnic division.

The Wolves are Coming Back: The Politics of Fear in Eastern Germany

Rebecca Pates and Julia Leser

9781526147011 | £20 | HB | 232 pp. | May 2021

Manchester University Press (IPS UK) | 13 black & white illus.

The wolves are coming back moves beyond stereotypic representations of East Germany, and shines light on the complexities of post-socialist life and losses. It seeks to explain the extraordinary success of new far right parties in a vivid ethnographic recounting of the local politics of fear, hope and national identity.

Marxism and America: New Appraisals

Christopher Phelps and Robin Vandome (Eds.)

9781526149763 | £80 | HB | 320 pp. | June 2021

Manchester University Press (IPS UK) | 16 black & white illus.

If the United States has been so hostile to Marxism, what accounts for Marxism's recurrent attractiveness to certain Americans? Marxism and America: New appraisals sheds new light on that question in essays that engage sexuality, gender, race, nationalism, class, memory, and much more.

China's Strategic Arsenal: Worldview, Doctrine, and Systems

James M. Smith and Paul J. Bolt (Eds.)

9781647120795 | £27 | PB | 280 pp. | April 2021

Georgetown University Press (IPS UK) | 3 tables, unspecified; 6 figures

A critical look at how China's growing strategic arsenal could impact a rapidly changing world order

Beautyscapes: Mapping Cosmetic Surgery Tourism

Ruth Holliday, Meredith Jones and David Bell

9781526155818 | £20 | PB | 232 pp. | April 2021

Manchester University Press (IPS UK) | 41 colour illus.

Beautyscapes is the first book to focus specifically on cosmetic surgery tourism. It draws on key themes of interest to students and researchers interested in globalisation and mobility, such as gender and class, neoliberalism, social media, conviviality and care, to explain the nature and growing popularity of international medical travel.

Citizens without Borders: Yugoslavia and Its Migrant Workers in Western Europe

Brigitte Le Normand

9781487525156 | £26.99 | PB | 304 pp. | April 2021

University of Toronto Press (IPS UK) | 28 illus., unspecified

This book examines Yugoslavia's efforts to build and maintain a relationship with its migrant workers in Western Europe through cultural and educational programs.

Understanding Climate Change: Science, Policy, and Practice

Sarah Burch and Sara E. Harris

9781487522797 | £29.99 | PB | 280 pp. | June 2021

University of Toronto Press (IPS UK) | 70 figures; 16 illus., unspecified

The second edition of Understanding Climate Change provides readers with a concise, accessible, and holistic picture of the climate change problem, including both the scientific and human dimensions.

Galeazzo Ciano: The Fascist Pretender

Tobias Hof

9781487507985 | £56.99 | HB | 472 pp. | May 2021

University of Toronto Press (IPS UK) | 21 illus., unspecified

Through the prism of the rise and fall of Galeazzo Ciano (1903-1944), this biography is a comprehensive study of a leading member of the fascist regime other than Benito Mussolini.

The Future of the Eurozone - How to Keep Europe Together: A Progressive Perspective from Germany

Alexander Schellinger and Philipp Steinberg

9783837640816 | £27.99 | PB | 208 pp. | June 2021

Transcript Verlag (Gazelle Book Services Ltd)

Europe is stumbling from crisis to crisis. In this volume, renowned German researchers and leading practitioners provide pragmatic recommendations. Their plea for a democratically legitimized Euro Finance Minister, a new economic approach, a common Eurozone budget, and minimum social standards are the prerequisites for a fair, stable, and prosperous Europe.

Left Populism in Europe: Lessons from Jeremy Corbyn to Podemos

Marina Prentoulis

9780745337630 | £16.99 | PB | 192 pp. | May 2021

Pluto Press (Marston Book Services Ltd)

Where does the left go from here? Bringing a wealth of experience in political organising, Marina Prentoulis argues that left populism is a political logic that brings together isolated demands against a common enemy. She looks at how egalitarian pluralism could transform economic and political institutions in a radical, democratic direction.

A Decolonial Feminism

Francoise Verges

9780745341101 | £75 | HB | 128 pp. | April 2021

Pluto Press (Marston Book Services Ltd)

For too long feminism has been co-opted by the forces they seek to dismantle. In this powerful manifesto, Francoise Verges argues that feminists should no longer be accomplices of capitalism, racism, colonialism and imperialism: it is time to fight the system that created the boss, built the prisons and polices women's bodies.

Transgender Marxism

Jules Joanne Gleeson and Elle O'Rourke (Eds.)

9780745341651 | £75 | HB | 320 pp. | May 2021

Pluto Press (Marston Book Services Ltd)

A watershed moment in transgender theory. The first collection of its kind, Transgender Marxism is a provocative and groundbreaking union of transgender studies and Marxist theory. Exploring trans lives and movements, the authors delve into the experience of surviving as transgender under capitalism.

Unsiloencing Gaza: Reflections on Resistance

Sara Roy

9780745341361 | £75 | HB | 304 pp. | June 2021

Pluto Press (Marston Book Services Ltd)

Palestinians refuse to be silenced and their struggle must not be ignored. Sara Roy examines US foreign policy towards the Palestinians, as well as analysing the trajectory of Israeli policy toward Gaza, which became a series of punitive approaches meant not only to contain the Hamas regime but weaken Gazan society.
