Vincent Brown

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674260290

£15.95 | PB | 336.pp | January 2022

In the second half of the eighteenth century, as European imperial conflicts extended their domain, warring African factions fed their captives to the transatlantic slave trade while masters struggled to keep their restive slaves under the yoke. In this contentious atmosphere, a movement of enslaved West Africans in Jamaica organized to throw off that yoke by violence. Their uprising-which became known as Tacky's Revolt-featured a style of fighting increasingly familiar today: scattered militias opposing great powers,

The Anatomy of Racial Inequality : With a New Preface

Glenn C. Loury

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674260467

£15.95 | PB | 256.pp | September 2021

Loury describes a cycle of tainted social information that has resulted in a self-replicating pattern of racial stereotypes that rationalize and sustain discrimination. His analysis shows how restrictions placed on Black development by stereotypical and stigmatizing thinking deny a segment of the population the possibility of self-actualization.
