Verso Books (Marston)
9781784787691
£9.99 | PB | 288 pp. | Oct 2016

An account of Angela Davis's incarceration and the struggles surrounding it, the book is also the most comprehensive analysis of the prison system of the United State.

Mistaken Identity
Asad Haider

Verso Books (Marston)
9781786637376
£10.99 | PB | 144 pp. | May 2018

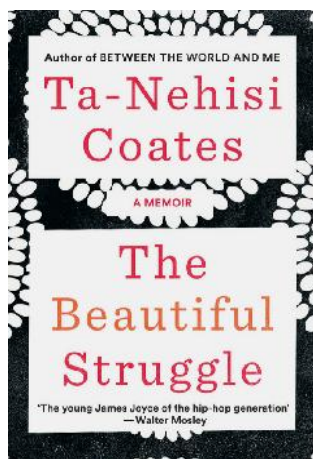

Weaving together autobiographical reflection, historical analysis, theoretical exegesis, and protest reportage, the book is a passionate call for a new practice of politics beyond colorblind chauvinism and "the ideology of race."

Toward Freedom
Touré F. Reed

Verso Books (Marston)
9781786634382
£11.99 | PB | 224 pp. | Feb 2020

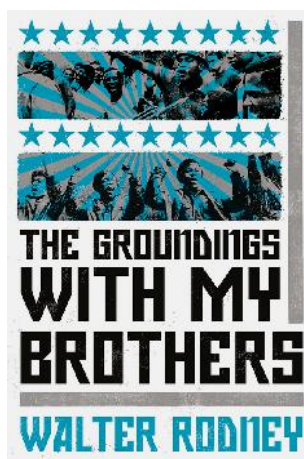

In the age of runaway inequality and Black Lives Matter, there is an emerging consensus that our society has failed to redress racial disparities. But who is the culprit?

The Beautiful Struggle
Ta-Nehisi Coates

Verso Books (Marston)
9781784785345
£9.99 | PB | 228 pp. | Jan 2016

The Beautiful Struggle is an extraordinary memoir from the most important new voice in the US race debate and the author of New York Times bestseller list no. 1 Between the World and Me, hailed by Toni Morrison as "required reading."

Latinx
Ed Morales

Verso Books (Marston)
9781784783228
£12.99 | PB | 368 pp. | Oct 2019

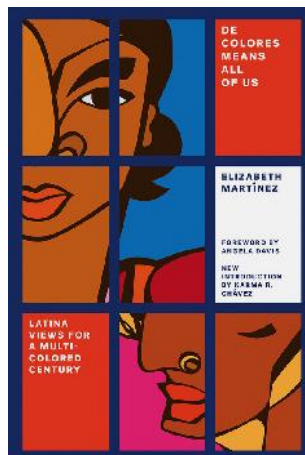

Morales explains how Latinx political identities are tied to a long Latin American history of mestizaje — "mixedness" or "hybridity"—and that this border thinking is both a key to understanding bilingual, bicultural Latin cultures and politics and a challenge to America's infamously black-white racial regime.

News for All the People
J. González and J. Torres

Verso Books (Marston)
9781844671113
£14.99 | PB | 476 pp. | Nov 2012

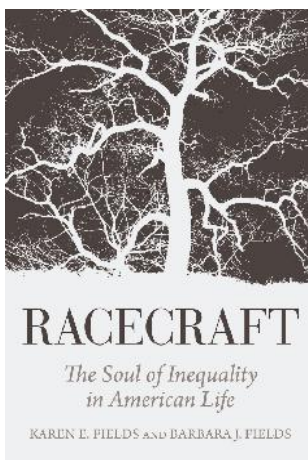

America's racial divisions have always played a central role in the creation of the country's media system, just as the media has contributed to racial oppression.

De Colores Means All of Us
Elizabeth Martínez
Foreword by Angela Y. Davis

Verso Books (Marston)
9781786631176
£11.99 | PB | 288 pp. | June 2017

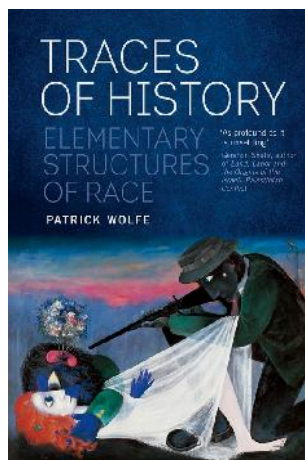

Martínez presents a radical Latina perspective on race, liberation and identity.

Racecraft
Karen E. Fields and Barbara J. Fields

Verso Books (Marston)
9781781683132
£9.99 | PB | 310 pp. | Feb 2014

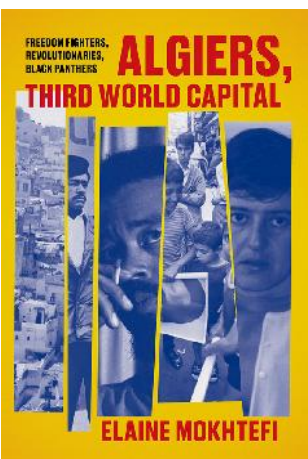

Most people assume that racism grows from a perception of human difference. The authors argue otherwise: the practice of racism produces the illusion of race, through what they call "racecraft."

Trace of History
Patrick Wolfe

Verso Books (Marston)
9781781689172
£19.99 | PB | 306 pp. | Nov 2016

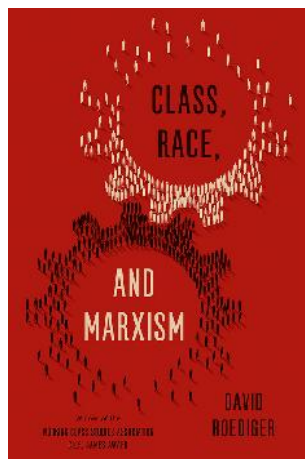

This book shows how race marks and reproduces the different relationships of inequality into which Europeans have coopted subaltern populations: territorial dispossession, enslavement, confinement, assimilation, and removal.

Algiers, Third World Capital
Elaine Mokhtefi

Verso Books (Marston)
9781788730037
£9.99 | PB | 256 pp. | Mar 2020

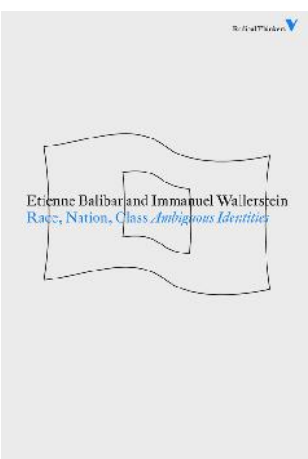

Following the Algerian war for independence and the defeat of France in 1962, Algiers became the liberation capital of the Third World. Mokhtefi found a home here and crossed paths with some of the era's brightest stars, including Fanon and Eldridge Cleaver.

Class, Race, and Marxism
David R. Roediger

Verso Books (Marston)
9781786631244
£12.99 | PB | 208 pp. | Oct 2019

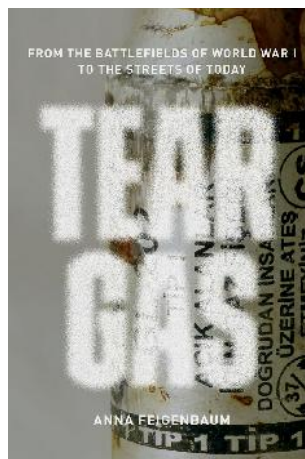

The founder of whiteness studies surveys the race/class relationship. This new volume implicitly and explicitly reminds us that his ideas, and the best studies of whiteness generally, come from within the Marxist tradition.
