

Architectures of Colonialism : Constructed Histories, Conflicting Memories

Vera Egbers

Birkhauser (HGV) | 9783035626742

£29.95 | PB | 352.pp | December 2023

Demarcating Japan : Imperialism, Islanders, and Mobility, 1855–1884

Takahiro Yamamoto

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674291386

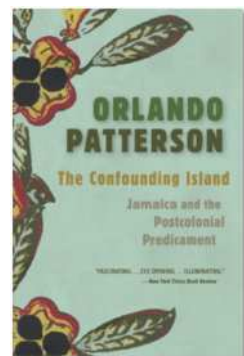

£43.95 | HB | 284.pp | January 2023

Histories of remote islands around Japan are usually told through the prism of territorial disputes. In contrast, Takahiro Yamamoto contends that the transformation of the islands from ambiguous border zones emerged out of multilateral power relations. Demarcating Japan shows the crucial role of nonstate actors in formulating a territory.

The Confounding Island : Jamaica and the Postcolonial Predicament

Orlando Patterson

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292246

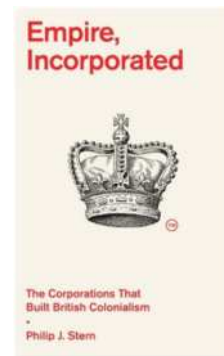

£19.95 | PB | 432.pp | February 2023

Orlando Patterson returns to Jamaica, his birthplace, to reckon with its history and culture. Locals claim to be some of the world's happiest people, and their successes in music and athletics are legendary. Yet the country remains violent and poor. In Jamaica the dilemmas of globalization and postcolonial politics are thrown into stark relief.

Empire, Incorporated : The Corporations That Built British Colonialism

Philip J. Stern

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674988125

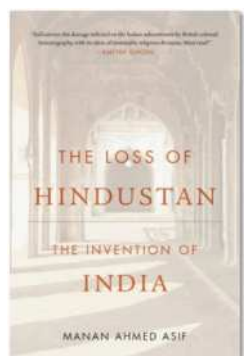

£30.95 | HB | 408.pp | May 2023

Historians typically regard the British Empire as a state project aided by corporations. Philip Stern turns this view on its head, arguing that corporations drove colonial expansion and governance, creating an overlap between sovereign and commercial power that continues to shape the relationship between nations and corporations to this day.

The Loss of Hindustan : The Invention of India

Manan Ahmed Asif

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292338

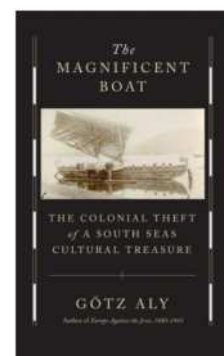

£21.95 | PB | 336.pp | March 2023

The Indian subcontinent was once known as Hindustan, a multicultural region with a cohesive political identity. Manan Ahmed Asif explores the abandonment of this pluralism under European influence, such that a place once understood as the home of all faiths is now considered—locally and abroad—the land of the Hindus.

The Magnificent Boat : The Colonial Theft of a South Seas Cultural Treasure

Götz Aly

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674276574

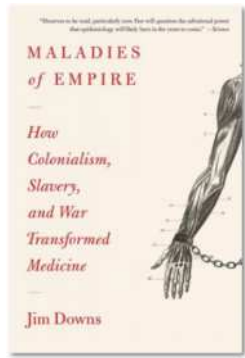

£26.95 | HB | 224.pp | March 2023

Götz Aly pens a forgotten chapter in the history of imperialism as the story of a single object: a majestic fifteen-meter boat, looted from Papua New Guinea during a German colonial expedition and since displayed in Berlin museums. Aly restores attention to colonial conquests and lays bare the vexed nature of ethnological appropriation.

Maladies of Empire : How Colonialism, Slavery, and War Transformed Medicine

Jim Downs

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293861

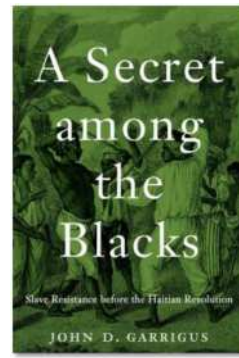

£17.95 | PB | 272.pp | October 2023

Standard histories of infectious disease celebrate brilliant minds such as Florence Nightingale, John Snow, and Robert Koch. In this unorthodox telling, Jim Downs focuses on a forgotten group of contributors: the conscript soldiers, colonial subjects, and enslaved people whose bodies were the experimental matter on which medical progress relied.

A Secret among the Blacks : Slave Resistance before the Haitian Revolution

John D. Garrigus

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674272828

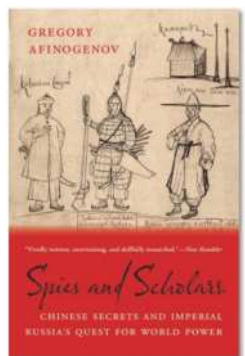

£34.95 | HB | 256.pp | September 2023

John D. Garrigus provides a profound historical corrective, showing that enslaved Blacks in Saint-Domingue were hardly complacent before the Haitian Revolution. While scholars have looked beyond the island's shores for the forces that inspired rebellion, Garrigus documents African resistance and political organizing decades before the 1791 revolt.

Spies and Scholars : Chinese Secrets and Imperial Russia's Quest for World Power

Gregory Afinogenov

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674294035

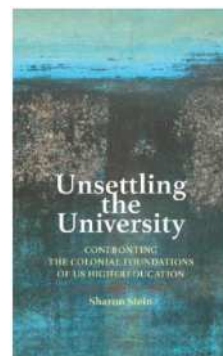

£30.95 | PB | 384.pp | December 2023

Gregory Afinogenov explores centuries of Russian spying and scholarship on the Far East. He argues that the approaches the empire took are closely related to its leaders' perception of Russia's place in the world. Espionage gave way to public-facing, academic study, as Russia sought to outdo Britain in a global contest for imperial prestige.

Unsettling the University : Confronting the Colonial Foundations of US Higher Education

Sharon Stein

Johns Hopkins University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9781421445045

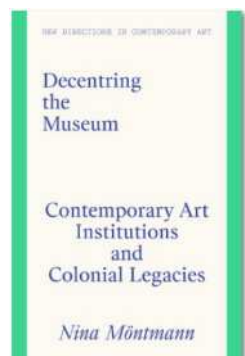

£33.00 | HB | 336.pp | January 2023

Shifts the narrative around the history of US higher education to examine its colonial past.

Decentering the Museum : Contemporary Art Institutions and Colonial Legacies

Nina Möntmann

Lund Humphries Publishers Ltd (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781848225503

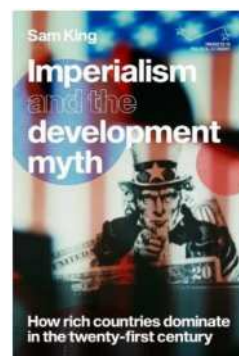

£29.99 | HB | 144.pp | September 2023

Nina Moentmann's timely book extends the decolonisation debate to the institutions of contemporary art.

Imperialism and the Development Myth : How Rich Countries Dominate in the Twenty-First Century

Sam King

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526171917

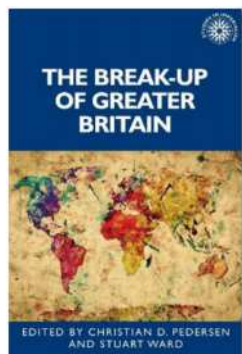

£25.00 | PB | 312.pp | March 2023

China and Third World societies cannot catch up. Much of the world's work has moved to the poor countries, yet – through dominating critical aspects of labour process – a few rich, imperialist countries monopolise the benefits. China and the Third World will remain poor and the vast global social divide is – under the present system – permanent. -- .

The Break-Up of Greater Britain

Stuart Ward

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526174468

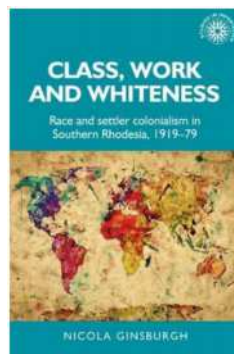

£25.00 | PB | 336.pp | September 2023

Turning the conventional Break-Up of Britain narrative inside-out, this book scans the horizon of overseas projections of British identities that unravelled during the decades of global decolonisation -- .

Class, Work and Whiteness : Race and Settler Colonialism in Southern Rhodesia, 1919–79
Nicola Ginsburgh

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526167095

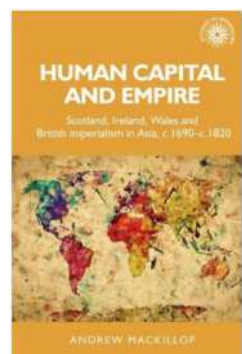

£25.00 | PB | 288.pp | February 2023

This book explores the class experiences of white workers in Southern Rhodesia. In examining the roles of lower class whites in the production of race, gender and nationalism under minority rule, this research contributes to understandings of social identities, power and structural inequality in the settler colonial context. -- .

Human Capital and Empire : Scotland, Ireland, Wales and British Imperialism in Asia,

Andrew Mackillop

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9780719070730

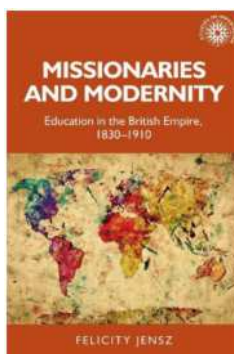

£25.00 | PB | 344.pp | April 2023

The book contrasts Scottish, Irish and Welsh involvement in early British imperialism in Asia and reflects on the ways in which this global connection impacted upon all three societies. -- .

Missionaries and Modernity : Education in the British Empire, 1830-1910

Felicity Jensz

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526174437

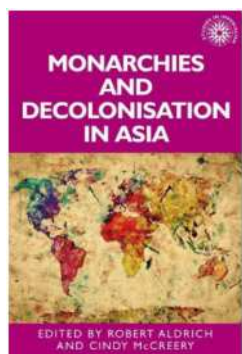

£25.00 | PB | 288.pp | September 2023

This book examines the changing landscape of evangelical British missionary education in the British Empire of the nineteenth century. It argues that over the course of the nineteenth century many aspects of mission schools were secularised, leading missionary societies to question the ambivalent legacy of mission schools. -- .

Monarchies and Decolonisation in Asia

Robert Aldrich

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526171733

£25.00 | PB | 312.pp | April 2023

Provides new perspectives on the role of European colonial monarchies, and the monarchies of Asia, in the late colonial period, during the process of decolonisation, and in its aftermath. -- .

New Zealand's Empire

Katie Pickles

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526171726

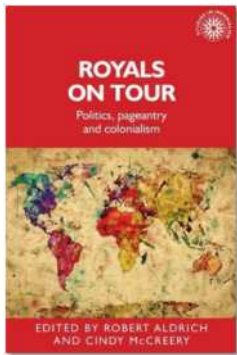

£25.00 | PB | 288.pp | April 2023

Both colonial and postcolonial historical approaches often sideline New Zealand as a peripheral player. This book redresses the balance, and evaluates its role as an imperial power – as both a powerful imperial envoy and a significant presence in the Pacific region. -- .

Royals on Tour : Politics, Pageantry and Colonialism

Robert Aldrich

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526109385

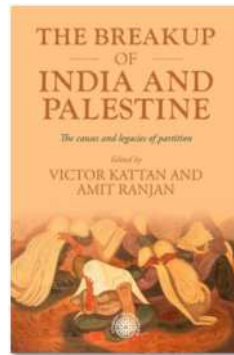

£19.99 | PB | 296.pp | December 2023

Travel by European and 'native' monarchs and other royals between Europe, Asia and Africa developed as a new form of personal and international politics in the late 1800s and early 1900s. The pageantry and politics of royal tours during the age of empire provides great insight into modern monarchy, colonialism and transnational cultural encounters. -- .

The Breakup of India and Palestine : The Causes and Legacies of Partition

Victor Kattan

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526170309

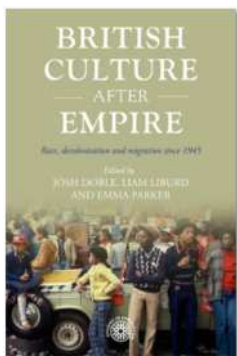

£90.00 | HB | 312.pp | August 2023

These chapters provide deeply researched narratives of the links between partition in India and Palestine in 1947. It focuses on the shared dynamics that shaped both regions, such as violence, the role of religion in politics, majoritarian politics, and the persistence of imperial modes of power. -- .

British Culture After Empire : Race, Decolonisation and Migration Since 1945

Josh Doble

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526159748

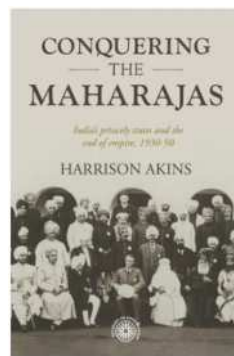

£90.00 | HB | 296.pp | February 2023

This book follows the afterlives of empire from 1945 to present day, providing an interdisciplinary analysis of how the legacy of empire continues to shape the cultures, politics, spaces and memories of contemporary Britain. The essays it contains illustrate this with reference to a series of local histories, individual texts and institutions. -- .

Conquering the Maharajas : India's Princely States and the End of Empire, 1930-50

Harrison Akins

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526167859

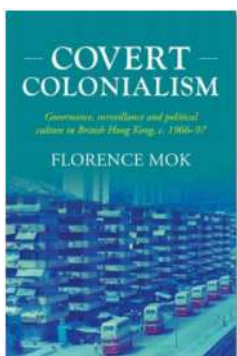

£85.00 | HB | 304.pp | June 2023

Conquering the maharajas demonstrates that the political and military clashes between the Indian and Pakistani governments and the princely states, a legacy of the layered sovereignty of British indirect rule in India, was a product of the competing ideas of state sovereignty leading up to and following the transfer of power in 1947. -- .

Covert Colonialism : Governance, Surveillance and Political Culture in British Hong Kong, c. 1966-97

Florence Mok

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526158192

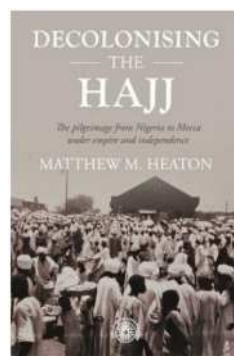

£85.00 | HB | 296.pp | July 2023

This book is the first comprehensive archive-based study to explore governance, surveillance, political culture and public policymaking in colonial Hong Kong from 1966 to 1997, using newly released archival documents in London and Hong Kong. Using historical discipline, it provides a thorough understanding of state-society relations in Hong Kong. -- .

Decolonising the Hajj : The Pilgrimage from Nigeria to Mecca Under Empire and Independence

Matthew Heaton

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526162601

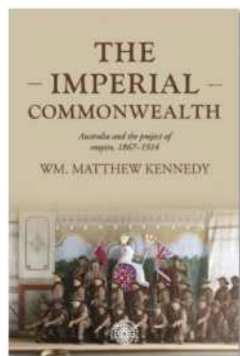

£85.00 | HB | 248.pp | May 2023

This book recounts the effects of British colonial rule and decolonization on the transformation of the pilgrimage to Mecca (Hajj) from Nigeria over the course of the twentieth century. In so doing, it incorporates Nigeria into broader historical understanding of one of the most important transnational processes in the world. -- .

The Imperial Commonwealth : Australia and the Project of Empire, 1867-1914

Wm. Matthew Kennedy

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526162755

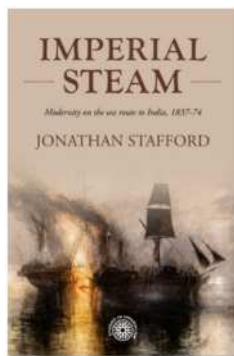

£85.00 | HB | 280.pp | July 2023

The Imperial Commonwealth examines what empire meant to late nineteenth- and early twentieth-century Australian settler colonists, how it seemed to entail special obligations for white settlers of British heritage, and how, in developing settler colonial categories of empire, Australia itself became an empire. -- .

Imperial Steam : Modernity on the Sea Route to India, 1837-74

Jonathan Stafford

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526164483

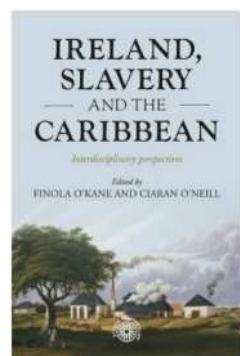

£85.00 | HB | 264.pp | April 2023

Imperial steam explores the early history of a steamship route which was at the heart of the functioning of the British Empire. More so than the practical changes wrought by steam, the book argues that the modernity associated with the steamship provided a powerful imaginative frame of reference for narrating Britain's place in its imperial world. -- .

Ireland, Slavery and the Caribbean : Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Finola OKane

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526150998

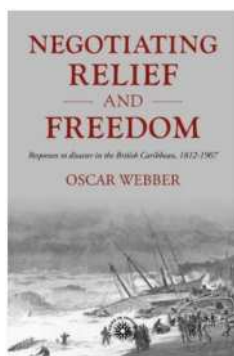

£90.00 | HB | 392.pp | March 2023

Ireland, slavery and the Caribbean interrogates the complex relationship between two island archipelagos at the peak of the slave economy. Employing a broad range of islands, sources, sites, and methods creates a transnational, trans-imperial and interdisciplinary history of Ireland, slavery and the Caribbean. -- .

Negotiating Relief and Freedom : Responses to Disaster in the British Caribbean, 1812-1907

Oscar Webber

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526160393

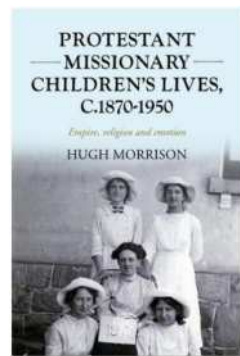

£85.00 | HB | 224.pp | September 2023

This book investigates both short- and long-term responses to disaster in the British Caribbean. It is the first to examine the informal negotiations that took place on the ground between the colonial authorities and the African-Caribbean population, and the formal negotiations undertaken by colonies as they sought financial aid from Parliament. -- .

Protestant Missionary Childrens Lives, C.1870-1950 : Empire, Religion and Emotion

Hugh Morrison

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526156785

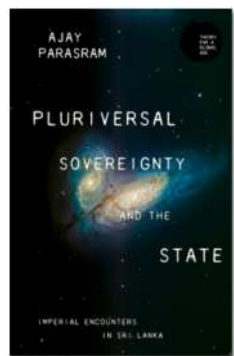

£85.00 | HB | 272.pp | December 2023

Protestant missionary children's historical lives are examined from the perspectives of parents, churches and children, to reveal complicated existences. This book takes a comparative approach across a range of settings, drawing on oral history, childhood history and histories of emotion. It extends scholarship into the mid-twentieth century. -- .

Pluriversal Sovereignty and the State : Imperial Encounters in Sri Lanka

Ajay Parasram

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526148407

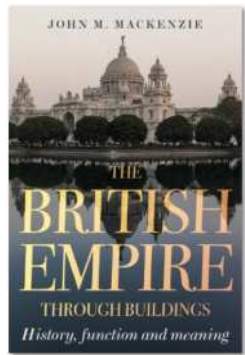

£85.00 | HB | 216.pp | November 2023

This book explains how the processes of 'total territorial rule' at the core of the modern international system became normalised in Ceylon (Sri Lanka). It develops a decolonial framework informed by a 'pluriverse' of multiple ontologies of sovereignty to argue that the state itself is an outcome of imperial globalisation. -- .

The British Empire Through Buildings : Structure, Function and Meaning

John M. MacKenzie

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526172013

£30.00 | PB | 312.pp | August 2023

Imperialism is strikingly represented in its buildings. This work illuminates the dispersal of colonial culture and religious forms, social classes, and racial divisions over two centuries, from the establishment of colonial rule to a post-colonial world. It will be a vital reading for all students of imperial history and global material culture. -- .

Carbon Colonialism : How Rich Countries Export Climate Breakdown

Laurie Parsons

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526169181

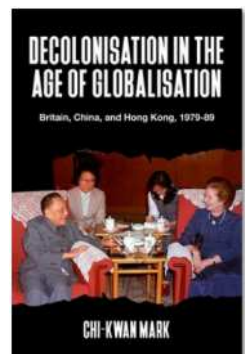

£18.99 | HB | 248.pp | May 2023

Outsourcing climate breakdown shows how the impact of climate change, including the slow-burn disasters of droughts and floods, is traded out by wealthier countries and imported by less wealthy ones as the price of economic growth. -- .

Decolonisation in the Age of Globalisation : Britain, China, and Hong Kong, 1979-89

Chi-kwan Mark

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526171320

£85.00 | HB | 280.pp | July 2023

Drawing extensively on the declassified British archives and Chinese sources, this book explores how Britain and China negotiated for Hong Kong's future, and how Anglo-Chinese relations flourished after 1984. This original study argues that Thatcher was a pragmatic neoliberal, and the British diplomacy of 'educating' China yielded mixed results. -- .

Encountering Early America

Rachel Winchcombe

Manchester University Press (IPS UK/NBNI) | 9781526171740

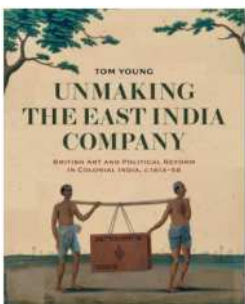

£25.00 | PB | 256.pp | April 2023

Encountering early America traces the many cultural influences that shaped English understandings of the Americas in the sixteenth century. The book demonstrates that the first century of English engagement with America was dynamic, adaptive and had a lasting influence on exploration and settlement in the New World. -- .

Unmaking the East India Company : British Art and Political Reform in Colonial India, c.
