Takahiro Yamamoto

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674291386

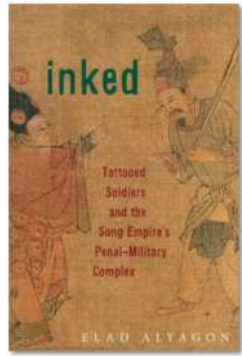

£43.95 | HB | 284.pp | January 2023

Histories of remote islands around Japan are usually told through the prism of territorial disputes. In contrast, Takahiro Yamamoto contends that the transformation of the islands from ambiguous border zones emerged out of multilateral power relations. Demarcating Japan shows the crucial role of nonstate actors in formulating a territory.

Inked : Tattooed Soldiers and the Song Empire's Penal-Military Complex

Elad Alyagon

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674291287

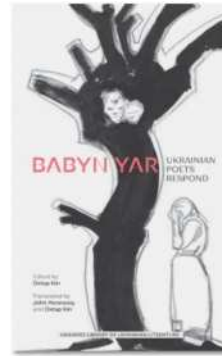

£43.95 | HB | 276.pp | March 2023

Inked is a social history of common soldiers of the Song dynasty, most of whom would have been recognized by their tattooed bodies. Overlooked in the historical record, tattoos were an indelible aspect of the Song world, and their ubiquity was tied to the rise of the penal–military complex, a vast system for social control, warfare, and labor.

Edward N. Luttwak

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674660052

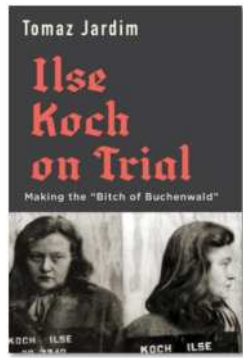

£29.95 | HB | 288.pp | October 2023

Why is Israel's relatively small and low-budget military also the world's most innovative, technologically and logistically? Edward Luttwak and Eitan Shamir look to the IDF's unique structure: integrating army, air force, and navy in one service, under an officer class constantly refreshed by short tenures, the IDF is built for agility and change.

Ilse Koch on Trial : Making the “Bitch of Buchenwald”

Tomaz Jardim

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674249189

£30.95 | HB | 368.pp | April 2023

After WWII, Ilse Koch became known worldwide as the “Bitch of Buchenwald.” She was assuredly guilty of atrocities, but the most sensational crimes ascribed to her by prosecutors and newspapers went unproven. Tomaz Jardim reveals how Koch’s perceived betrayal of womanhood sealed her fate as a scapegoat for a society seeking absolution.

Japan Rearmed : The Politics of Military Power

Sheila A. Smith

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293953

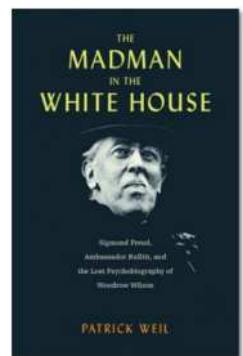

£21.95 | PB | 352.pp | November 2023

Modern Japan is not only responding to threats from North Korea and China but is also reevaluating its dependence on the United States, Sheila Smith shows. No longer convinced they can rely on Americans to defend their country, Tokyo’s political leaders are now confronting the possibility that they may need to prepare the nation’s military for war.

The Madman in the White House : Sigmund Freud, Ambassador Bullitt, and the Lost Psychobiography

Patrick Weil

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674291614

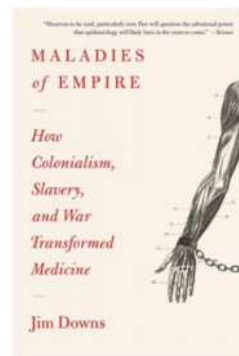

£30.95 | HB | 400.pp | May 2023

In 1932 Sigmund Freud and diplomat William Bullitt completed a well-informed psychobiography of Woodrow Wilson, inspired by his irrational handling of the Treaty of Versailles. Released decades later in redacted form, the book was panned by critics and immediately forgotten. Patrick Weil resurrects the original version and reassesses its insights.

Maladies of Empire : How Colonialism, Slavery, and War Transformed Medicine

Jim Downs

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293861

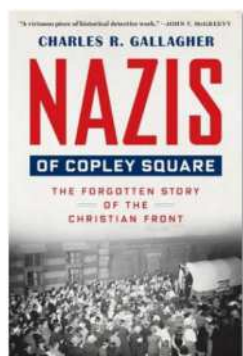

£17.95 | PB | 272.pp | October 2023

Standard histories of infectious disease celebrate brilliant minds such as Florence Nightingale, John Snow, and Robert Koch. In this unorthodox telling, Jim Downs focuses on a forgotten group of contributors: the conscript soldiers, colonial subjects, and enslaved people whose bodies were the experimental matter on which medical progress relied.

Nazis of Copley Square : The Forgotten Story of the Christian Front

Charles Gallagher

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293878

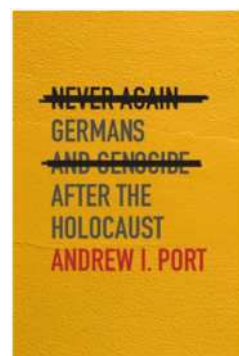

£17.95 | PB | 336.pp | September 2023

During WWII, some American Catholics openly embraced Nazism. Their armed wing, the Christian Front, was to lead the violent revolution. Charles Gallagher unearths the history of these crusaders, the mainstream theological underpinnings of their activism, the spiritual and political leaders who protected them, and the suppression of their memory.

Never Again : Germans and Genocide after the Holocaust

Andrew I. Port

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674275225

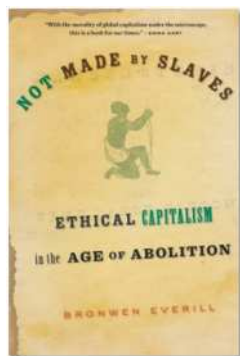

£30.95 | HB | 416.pp | May 2023

What do Germans mean when they say “never again”? Andrew Port examines German responses to the genocides in Cambodia, Bosnia, and Rwanda, showing how these events transformed the meaning of the Holocaust in Germany, inspired partial remilitarization, and changed the country’s relationship to refugees fleeing war-torn regions.

Not Made by Slaves : Ethical Capitalism in the Age of Abolition

Bronwen Everill

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292345

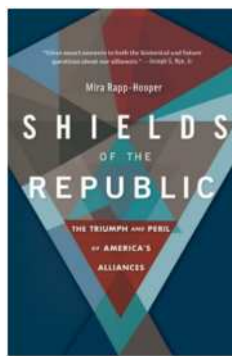

£17.95 | PB | 328.pp | February 2023

Not Made by Slaves describes the efforts of early-nineteenth-century businesses to end plantation slavery by promoting commerce in “legitimate” goods. Exploring the work of activists and businesses, Bronwen Everill adds an important dimension to the history of capitalism and its development under slavery.

Shields of the Republic : The Triumph and Peril of America’s Alliances

Mira Rapp-Hooper

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292161

£17.95 | PB | 272.pp | April 2023

During the Cold War, the United States shook off its traditional aversion to alliances and built the most impressive peacetime treaty structure in history. Yet today politicians argue that the country is so secure it gains nothing paying the cost of mutual defense. In doing so, they threaten a key source of that security: the alliances themselves.

Spies and Scholars : Chinese Secrets and Imperial Russia’s Quest for World Power

Gregory Afinogenov

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674294035

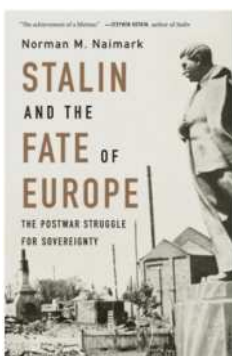

£30.95 | PB | 384.pp | December 2023

Gregory Afinogenov explores centuries of Russian spying and scholarship on the Far East. He argues that the approaches the empire took are closely related to its leaders’ perception of Russia’s place in the world. Espionage gave way to public-facing, academic study, as Russia sought to outdo Britain in a global contest for imperial prestige.

Stalin and the Fate of Europe : The Postwar Struggle for Sovereignty

Norman M. Naimark

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292154

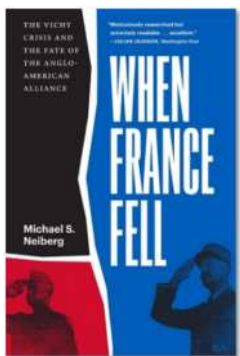

£17.95 | PB | 368.pp | February 2023

It can seem as though the Cold War division of Europe was inevitable. But Stalin was more open to a settlement on the continent than is assumed. In this powerful reassessment of the postwar order, Norman Naimark returns to the four years after WWII to illuminate European leaders’ efforts to secure national sovereignty amid dominating powers.

When France Fell : The Vichy Crisis and the Fate of the Anglo-American Alliance

Michael S. Neiberg

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293885

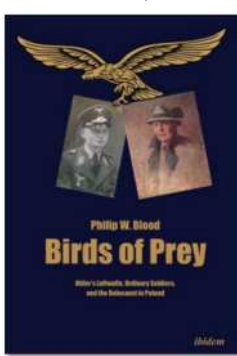

£19.95 | PB | 320.pp | October 2023

The fall of France in 1940 panicked US leaders, leading to their fateful decision to recognize the pro-Nazi Vichy government. Michael Neiberg takes readers back to the fraught early years of World War II, when America’s misguided policy on Vichy alienated its British ally and ensured tensions with Charles de Gaulle and the postwar French Republic.
