LETTER FROM SAM

I’m delighted to welcome you to the SPCK Group’s Bibles catalogue.
We publish a wide range of Bibles so that we have something for every need.

Despite this breadth in our list, all of our Bibles have a number of things in common:

- They are all Anglicised so that they have British spelling and grammar.
- They are designed and produced to very high standards. Our Bibles have been shortlisted twice in the British Book Design and Production Awards.
- They have excellent price points which will offer great value to consumers.

What’s new in this catalogue?

- An expanded range of English Standard Version Catholic Edition (ESV-CE) Bibles – ready for its usage in the Catholic Lectionary from Advent 2024.
- Fantastic price drops on the ESV Search the Scriptures Bible and the NIV Bible Speaks Today Bible – winner of Bible of the Year at the Christian Resources Together Awards.
- The brand new NRSVue translation – an updated version of the New Revised Standard Version.
- New pew Bible packs offering fantastic value and available at trade discounts.

SPCK is in its fourth century of Bible publishing, and we hope you will find that our range reflects our – and your – passion for the Scriptures.

HISTORY OF BIBLE PUBLISHING

GENERAL

For much of our history (which, dating back to 1698, makes us the third oldest publisher in the UK), we have been a Bible publisher, but for a few decades we found ourselves without a Bible licence. That changed in 2014, when Sam joined the SPCK Group. Our first acquisition was the NRSV Bible, which we published with great success, and the newly updated edition, the NRSVue, was published earlier this year. In addition to this translation, The Bible for Everyone by John Goldingay and Tom Wright followed in 2018, the New Living Translation in 2019, and the ESV Catholic Edition in 2021. We have excelled with Bible partnerships as well, such as the Premier Christian Communications NLT Bible edition in 2018 which continues, and the BST (Bible Speaks Today) NIV Study Bible which was published in 2020.

CHILDREN'S

With Children’s Bible publishing, the status is quite different! For more than 40 years, the SPCK Group has been publishing Bible retellings for children, with sales of these titles in many languages worldwide. One of the first – and still going strong – Bible retellings is The Lion Children’s Bible by Lion Publishing founder Pat Alexander. Throughout the 1980s and 1990s, there was an ongoing programme of Children’s Bibles, making the familiar and not so familiar stories from the Old and New Testaments accessible and engaging for all ages. Among these are much-loved editions such as The Lion First Bible, The Children’s Bible in 365 Stories and The Lion Graphic Bible. In the 2000s, Candle Books Bible retellings joined the programme and SPCK Publishing began their Children’s Bible programme from 2015. Each year, the tradition of producing high-quality, beautifully illustrated and faithful retellings has continued, and 2024 saw the release of Tom Wright’s My Big Story Bible. The SPCK Group also now offers Children’s and Youth editions of Bible translations for use in homes, schools and church groups.

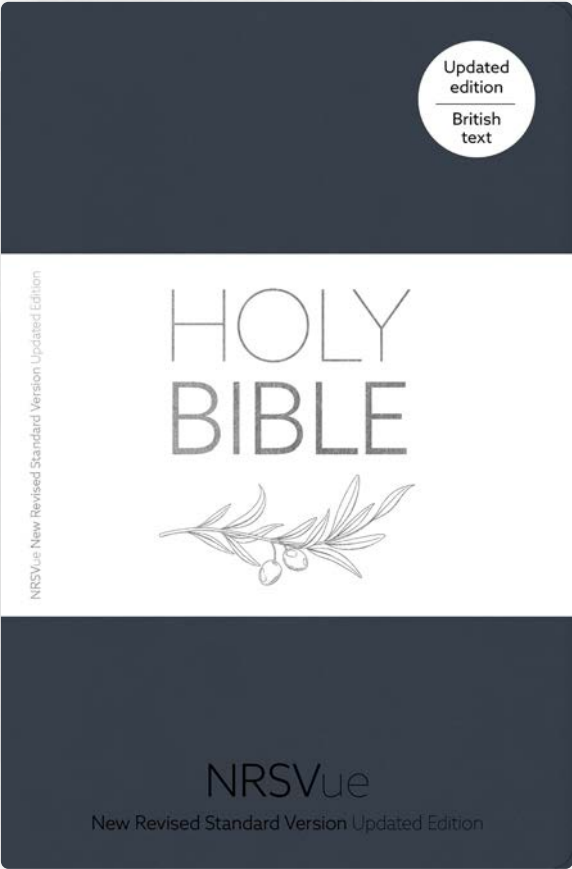

PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

Moving forward, we have exciting plans for these translations in the future. With the opportunities that evolving technology offers, we are dreaming of new ways to present the Bible. All of the above translations are available as eBooks now and the ESV-CE is also available as an audiobook.

Our proven track record for British Bible products shows that we are the leading Bible publisher in the UK with a wide- ranging and ever-growing family of Bibles. We hope you enjoy exploring the fruits of our labours.

‘The NRSV has long been my first choice among modern versions of the Bible, and as a linguist by training I was eager to see how this updated edition compares with previous versions. I was not disappointed! Thirty years of advances in textual analysis make it more accurate than any other translation, and now its sensitive rendering into elegant and inclusive British English ensures a smoother and more rewarding reading experience for millions of English speakers, both in the UK and around the world. All of which means the NRSVue now stands at the pinnacle of English Bible translations.’

EMMA INESON, BISHOP OF KENSINGTON, LONDON

‘I view the NRSV translation to be the finest English Bible we have today. Its scholarship is impeccable. The English is accurate, approachable and readable. I recommend it highly.’

RICHARD J. FOSTER, WRITER AND THEOLOGIAN

‘The NRSV is my first choice, both for my college classes and for my own study and devotion. The careful scholarship of the translation, the generosity of the pronouns, and the invaluable textual notations make this translation my most trusted friend in preaching, teaching, worship and prayer.’

God Creates the World

In the beginning God created heaven and earth. God's Spirit was moving over the dark empty waters that swirled around the earth. God spoke, and at his word a bright dazzling light scattered the darkness. Then God spoke to the waters. Some of them became the sea, and some became clouds in the sky. God spoke again, and masses of land rose up out of the sea: huge continents and little islands, mountains, hills, and valleys. Then God covered the land with plants: trees, bushes, grasses, herbs, and bright, beautiful flowers.

Next, God made the warm beams of the sun to shine through the clouds. The sun gave light to the earth in the daytime, and at night the earth's moon and millions of stars lit up the sky.

Then God decided to make living, breathing creatures. First, he made creatures that live in the water: smooth animals that swim, dive, glisten, and spurt. Then God made creatures that fly in the air: feathery animals that glide, swoop, twitter, and squawk. Then God made creatures that live on land: furry animals that run, jump, squeak, and roar. God also made little creatures that crawl, scuttle, spin, and buzz.

God looked at everything in the world, and it was all good. But God knew it needed something more. He wanted all the plants and animals to be looked after. So, last of all, God created humans. He made them to be like him. "Become a great family," said God. "Look after my world!"

God saw it all. It was very good. The work was done. God came to settle down in the world he had made. He was at home.

Mary Has a Special Visitor

A few months after visiting Zechariah in the Temple, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a small house in Nazareth, a town far to the north of Jerusalem in the region of Galilee. Gabriel was going to give some special news to a young woman called Mary. Mary was Elizabeth's cousin. She was going to marry Joseph, who was descended from King David.

The news that Gabriel was bringing to Mary was going to change her life. More than that, it was going to change the whole world. Forever!

Mary was frightened when she saw the angel. "Don't be afraid!" said Gabriel. "God is with you. You're going to have a baby! His name will be Jesus. He will be the king of Israel, and his kingdom will last forever!"

"How can this happen?" asked Mary. "I'm not even married!"

"God's Holy Spirit inside you will make it happen," explained Gabriel. "Your child will be God's own son. To show you what God can do, your cousin Elizabeth is going to have a baby too, even though she's old."

Mary bowed her head. "Here I am," she said. "I am God's servant. May it happen, just as you have said."

After Gabriel had left, Mary decided to visit Elizabeth. When she was near the house, Elizabeth hurried out to meet her and the two women gave each other a joyful hug. They were so excited! Then Mary sang a beautiful song of thanks to God. She stayed with Elizabeth for three months, before going back home to Nazareth.
