

Our American Israel

Amy Kaplan

Harvard University Press (Wiley)

9780674737624 | £23.95 | HB | 368 pp.

October 2018

An essential account of America's most controversial alliance that reveals how the United States came to see Israel as an extension of itself, and how that strong and divisive partnership plays out in our own time.

Songs in Dark Times

Amelia M. Glaser

Harvard University Press (Wiley)

9780674248458 | £31.95 | HB | 368 pp.

November 2020

Between the world wars, a generation of Jewish leftists reached out to other embattled peoples of the earth—Palestinian Arabs, African Americans, Spanish Republicans—in Yiddish verse. Songs in Dark Times examines the richly layered meanings of this project, grounded in Jewish collective trauma but embracing a global community of the oppressed.

The Sword is Not Enough

Jeremy Pressman

Manchester University Press (IPS UK)

9781526146175 | £25 | HB | 296 pp.

August 2020

Jeremy Pressman demonstrates that the default use of military force on both sides of the Arab-Israeli conflict has prevented its peaceful resolution. Whether called deterrence or war, armed struggle or terrorism, the history of the conflict reveals that violence has been counterproductive.

Mapping My Return: A Palestinian Memoir

Salman Abu Sitta

The American University in Cairo Press (IPS UK)

9789774168338 | £19.95 | PB | 352 pp.

December 2016

Salman Abu Sitta was just ten years old when the Nakba—the mass expulsion of Palestinians in 1948—happened, forcing him from his home near Beersheba. Like many Palestinians of his generation, this traumatic loss and his enduring desire to return would be the defining features of his life from that moment on.

Social Justice and Israel/Palestine

Aaron Hahn Tapper

Palestine's Horizon

Richard Falk

Pluto Press (Marston)

9780745399744 | £10 | PB | 176 pp.

March 2017

In focusing on these new tactics of resistance, Falk refutes the notion that the Palestinian struggle is a 'lost cause'. He also reflects on the legacy of Edward Said and the importance of his humanist thought in order to present a vision of peace that is mindful of the formidable difficulties of achieving a just solution to the long conflict.

On the Arab-Jew, Palestine, and Other Displacements

Ella Shohat

Decolonizing Israel, Liberating Palestine

Jeff Halper

Pluto Press (Marston)

9780745343396 | £14.99 | PB | 256 pp.

January 2021

For decades we have spoken of the 'Israel-Palestine conflict', but what if our understanding of the issue has been wrong all along? This book explores how the concept of settler colonialism provides a clearer understanding of the Zionist movement's project to establish a Jewish state in Palestine, displacing the Palestinian Arab population and marginalizing its cultural presence.
