Andrew Shtulman

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674248175

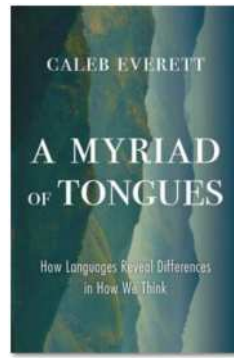

£30.95 | HB | 352.pp | November 2023

Imagination is thought to be the province of childhood—the stuff of free play and unrestrained ideas. Then comes the dull routine of adulthood, stifling creativity. In fact, the opposite is true. Andrew Shtulman shows that imagination is not inherited at birth, nor does it diminish with age. It grows as we do, through education and reflection.

A Myriad of Tongues : How Languages Reveal Differences in How We Think

Caleb Everett

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674976580

£24.95 | HB | 288.pp | September 2023

Exploring breakthroughs in language and cognition research, Caleb Everett finds that fundamentals of human perception are culturally encoded by the words and sentences we use. The experience of time, space, color, odor, and taste is substantially influenced by language, so that basic interactions with the world vary greatly across peoples.

Our Oldest Companions : The Story of the First Dogs

Pat Shipman

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674293946

£16.95 | PB | 272.pp | October 2023

The unique relationship between dogs and humans has had huge evolutionary consequences, changing the physical, behavioral, genetic, and emotional characteristics of both species. Pat Shipman looks to fossil records and new evidence to trace how the process of domestication worked and discovers how much of ourselves we owe to our canine companions.

The Joy of Consent : A Philosophy of Good Sex

Manon Garcia

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674279131

£24.95 | HB | 272.pp | October 2023

In the #MeToo age, US debate over licit sex has split into two camps: one insists that consent solves the problem of sexual coercion, while the other equates sexual pleasure with the patriarchal erotics of silence and mystery. Manon Garcia rejects both positions, arguing that consent is a faulty legal threshold but essential to the joy of good sex.

Kristin Surak

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674248649

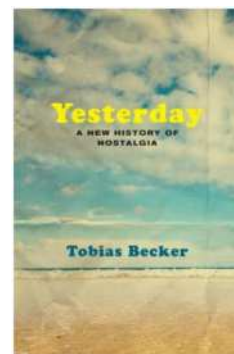

£29.95 | HB | 336.pp | September 2023

Kristin Surak offers the first on-the-ground investigation of the global market in citizenship for the rich. She tracks the countries that sell citizenship, the elites who buy it, and the intermediaries who make the market, revealing how citizenship by investment became a popular option that now accounts for over 50,000 naturalizations annually.

Yesterday : A New History of Nostalgia

Tobias Becker

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674251755

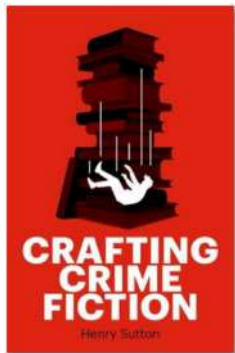

£29.95 | HB | 344.pp | December 2023

Nostalgia, supposedly, is the sphere of the sentimentalist. But also, and most definitely, it is a force in the creation of the present and future and thus worth careful thought. Yesterday argues that nostalgia's critics defend an idea of progress as naive as the longing they denounce, while conflating nostalgia itself with historical whitewashing.
